Meeting Norms revisited

3.0 New Items

3.1 2021-2022 Budget – Received on 1/15/2021. Waiting on a timeline. There is a due date extension. After reviewing the budget with the admin team, the teachers and staff, it will then be presented to the SOT in February.

3.2 SCHOOL DATA – Ms. Uy shared the MAPS data graphs in Reading and Math. Mrs. Alexander asked how the District is using it. Mrs. Hurst spoke about how we use multiple measures and that MAP data is only one of those measures.

Mrs. Hurst shared the school-wide Grade Data which showed how many D's and F's in Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. Mrs. Hurst shares how we provide support to students earning failing grades. Mr. Babbitt asked about where this data was generated from and Mrs. Hurst shared how the board meeting shared data district-wide.

3.3 DISTRICT UPDATE – Mrs. Hurst shared the board meeting recap from January 14, 2021. Key Points shared: 1. Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) for Pre-K – 3, 2. Small group plan, and 3. Distance Learning model. We are still in virtual learning.

4.0 Public Comment Period (2 minutes each)- No Comment

5.0 General Discussion

Mrs. Hurst shared:

PTA follow-up – We have a PTA, but it's not an official PTA if they did not approve a budget and approve the board.

Henderson Grant was approved for $15,000 for a CTT. This money must be spent this year. The CTT will help with intervention groups.

Mrs. Alexander asked if there is any timeline for the small groups. Mrs. Hurst shared there's no timeline or guidance yet. Student distribution happened earlier this month.

Mrs. Southards asked if the District given any specifications on what the data needs to be in order for the timeline to move forward.
